

For immediate Release

August 15, 2019

LIFESPAN RESOURCES' VOICE AND VINO AT THE CASINO RETURNS OCTOBER 29TH AND PROMISES TO BE BIGGER AND BETTER!

Lora Clark, Chief Executive Officer of LifeSpan Resources, announced today that this year's Voice and Vino at the Casino, set for October 29 at Horseshoe Southern Indiana, will be even bigger than last year.

In addition to the wine pull and wine tasting held in past years, the 2019 event will feature eight local performers all vying to bring home the Voice and Vino Trophy along with bragging rights of raising the most money for LifeSpan Resources.

"We are so excited about this year's event," Clark said. "We have four local celebrity judges in Mark Maxwell from Maxwell's House of Music and The Crashers, Jerry Finn of the Horseshoe Foundation, Leslie Lewis-Sheets of LL&A Interior Designs and Angie Fenton, Editor-in-chief of Extol Magazine and Host of WHAS11's Great Day Live.

And yes, Clark said, the red swivel chairs will be back, just like on the NBC's "The Voice."

The eight local musical performers include Dr. Mike Bittenbender, licensed pilot and UPS Aircraft maintenance instructor Wayne Fulton, professional hair stylist Kimberly Glyn, Juice Box Heroes' rocker Sydney Magers, business development executive at MCM Doug Helm, Scottsburg Planning and Zoning Executive Director April Ramoni, Rodefer Moss & Co. receptionist Kimberly Roby and Dayna Ashley of Schuler Bauer Real Estate Services.

The event will have a large raffle, silent auction, and dinner.

All money raised will go to support the services offered by LifeSpan Resources, a non-profit agency serving the elderly and those with disabilities in the local Southern Indiana area. The agency's mission is promoting independent living for people of all ages.

For more information or to become a sponsor or purchase a table at the event, visit LifeSpan Resources' website at lsr14.org or call Community Engagement Director, Michael Kolodziej at 812-206-7960.